

The Athena Institute of Astrology

Jeanni Monks & Charyn McLean

Are presenting TWO 'one-day' workshops on "Honouring The Goddess Within"
on 15 August & 9 September 2010

There are 8 Goddesses from ancient mythology that represent aspects of the archetypal feminine principles that are emerging into mass consciousness on our planet. Because these ancient goddess archetypes validate women for what they truly are and not for what society has traditionally told them they should be, they serve as a source of freedom and understanding to be tapped into by any woman - or man - in this era of rapidly changing gender roles. Each one-day workshop will focus on four of these feminine archetypes in your own lives revealing how you can honour the goddess within - from a mythological, psychological and astrological point of view. We invite you to a fun-filled experiential day of delving into the myths of these goddess energies in your own charts and in your hearts. To know ourselves more fully, is to know which goddesses we are primarily ruled by and how different goddesses influence the various stages and turning points of our lives.

Workshop 1 - 15th August 2010 : Artemis (the independent freedom loving goddess); Athena (the career and intellectual goddess); Hera (the sacred companion and partnership goddess) and Hestia (the devotional goddess and vestal virgin who honours her own sacred pathway).

Workshop 2 - 12th September 2010 : Demeter (the nurturing goddess) ; Persephone (the mystical maiden goddess); Aphrodite (goddess of love and sensuality) & Lilith (goddess of the dark feminine).
